

Fighting Casualisation at the University of Oxford: Identifying the Key Issues

13.00-14.00 on Friday 4 December

Please join us for a discussion to identify shared issues faced by our casualised colleagues at Oxford – from postgrad teachers to stipendiary lecturers and staff on fixed term contracts. We will also workshop a new Know Your Rights booklet, and plan for further anti-casualisation activities in Hilary Term.

This event is open to UCU members and non-members, and College-only staff are also encouraged to attend.

Schedule

Welcome and introductions	Richard Bell, Oxford UCU Anti-Casualisation Officer
Introduction to Know Your Rights document and upcoming contract event	Tom White, Oxford UCU Anti-Casualisation Officer
Open discussion of common issues and next steps	Mirela Ivanova, Oxford Research Fellows Group
Concluding remarks and next meeting	Richard Bell, Oxford UCU Anti-Casualisation Officer

Please register in advance for this meeting.

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

